

We're Here to Help

From the first days of life through adolescence and adulthood, people need help from time to time. That's where the Atlantic County Division of Intergenerational Services comes in.

The Division of Intergenerational Services helps young people, families, individuals with disabilities, and senior citizens effectively locate and access the many services offered to Atlantic County residents. Our trained staff members provide eligible individuals with everything from information and referral to outreach, case management, and juvenile or family crisis intervention.

If you're an Atlantic County resident who needs help, turn to the Division of Intergenerational Services at www.aclink.org or call 1-888-426-9243.

How Can We Help?

The Division of Intergenerational Services offers Atlantic County residents one convenient, comprehensive location for information and access to services for youth, families, disabled and senior citizens.

If you're confused by the changes in Medicare regulations, you're not alone. Intergenerational Services' staff members provide counseling and assistance to Atlantic County's seniors and disabled residents, helping them better understand Medicare regulations and help them access the services and benefits for which they are entitled.

We will explain your supplemental or Medigap insurance policy options and provide you with the information you need to make the best decision for your situation, and receive the services you need. Our counselors are available for home visits and group presentations. In Atlantic County, call 1-888-426-9243 for more information.

Atlantic County offers many services for aging adults and individuals with disabilities. The Atlantic County Division of Intergenerational Services, in collaboration with the New Jersey Division of Aging and Community Services, has created the Aging and Disabilities Resource Connection (ADRC). This program includes a consumer-driven, culturally competent service delivery system for seniors and individuals with disabilities. This service streamlines the eligibility process and financial considerations of Medicaid recipients and can help locate resources for:

- Adult Day Care
- Home-Delivered Meals
- Stewardship Respite Services
- Legal Services
- Residential Maintenance
- Caregiver Assistance Services
- Transportation
- Home Care Services
- Housing Assistance
- Senior Center
